

23RD Annual California Coastal Cleanup Day

September 15, 2007

(Sponsored by California Coastal Commission and Whole Foods)

On Saturday, September 15, 2007 the Delta Protection Commission participated in the 23rd Annual California Coastal Cleanup Day. The event which takes place on the third Saturday in September is a volunteer event focusing on the cleanup the State's shorelines and coast.

The Commission sponsored 3 sites: Clarksburg Boat Launch Ramp, Yolo County; Rio Vista Pier, Solano County; and Hog Island, San Joaquin County.

Statistics:

Clarksburg:

9 volunteers, 160 pounds of trash/recyclables removed

Rio Vista:

11 volunteers, 95 pounds of trash/recyclables removed

Hog Island:

25 volunteers (including 12 Sea Scouts), 400 pounds of trash/recyclables removed

Statewide Figures:

750 sites cleaned

Over 45,000 volunteers

800,000 pounds of trash/recyclables removed